English GOETHE SOCIETY.

AIMS OF THE SOCIETY.

The ENGLISH GOETHE SOCIETY was founded on February 26th, 1886, for the purpose of promoting the study of Goethe's work and thought; and in 1891 its scope was extended, so that, while always keeping Goethe as the central figure, the attention of the members might also be directed to other fields of German literature, art, and science. The Society pursues its aims by means of meetings, discussions, the publication of transactions, and in any other mode which may from time to time seem advisable to the governing body.

RULES.

---

1904.

---

I. The Society shall consist of two classes of Members—

- (a) Those subscribing one guinea per annum, thereby obtaining Membership in the Weimar Goethe-Gesellschaft and receiving its publications; and
- (b) Those subscribing half a guinea per annum, and obtaining all the privileges of membership except those of enrolment in the German Society and receipt of its publications.

All subscriptions are payable in advance on the 1st of January in each year.

II. The General Business Meeting of the Society in February shall elect a Council composed of fifteen Members, of whom at least two-thirds must be resident in London or its vicinity; who shall appoint a Treasurer, a Secretary or Secretaries, and an Executive Committee. This Committee shall consist of not more than three Members besides the Treasurer and Secretary.

III. The Council shall meet quarterly to receive the Report of the Executive Committee, and to discuss matters affecting the welfare of the Society. The Executive Committee shall carry on the administration of the current business of the Society in the intervals. Extraordinary Meetings of the Council shall be called by the Secretary whenever the Executive Committee think it necessary, or on the requisition of five Members of the Council. Any Member appointed to serve on the Executive Committee without being already on the Council, to become ex-officio a Member thereof.

IV. The Council shall elect a President and Vice-Presidents; the Vice-Presidents shall be permanent; the President shall be elected for a term of three years.

E7 #22

The Goethe Museum in Frankfurt a. M. has initiated a fund for the restoration of the poet's birthplace and for the better preservation of the collection committed to its charge.

It is felt that the ENGLISH GOETHE SOCIETY would wish to be associated with this appeal and it has been suggested that each of our members should be invited to contribute not less than Five Shillings to a common Fund, which will be forwarded to Frankfurt as a homage to Goethe from the ENGLISH GOETHE SOCIETY.

Contributions should be sent to :—

AIMS OF THE SOCIETY.

The ENGLISH GOETHE SOCIETY was founded on February 26th, 1886, for the purpose of promoting the study of Goethe's work and thought; and in 1891 its scope was extended, so that, while always keeping Goethe as the central figure, the attention of members might also be directed to other fields of German Literature. The Society pursues its aims by means of meetings, discussions, the publication of transactions, and in any other mode which may from time to time seem advisable to the governing body.
